7:30pm Welcome and Introduction

7.35pm Dr. Enrica Santarcangelo (University of Pisa)

Dr. Santarcangelo will talk about the physiological correlates of hypnotisability: what makes people prone to accept suggestions.

8.00pm Mr. Jack Blackbourn

Mr. Jack Blackbourn, magician and hypnotist, will join us to discuss what makes hypnosis so entertaining. He will also perform a live susceptibility test for everyone in the audience.

8.30pm Dr. Devin Terhune (Goldsmiths, University of London)

Dr. Terhune will be giving a primer on hypnosis and hypnotic suggestibility.

9.00pm Drinks and informal conversation

The event is free and open to all.

The Centre for the Creative Brain is generously endorsed by St Edmund Hall and the Wellcome Centre for Integrative Neuroimaging, University of Oxford.
