

ST EDMUND HALL ASSOCIATION

London Dinner & Annual General Meeting

The St Edmund Hall Association London Dinner remains the best-attended – and probably longest-surviving – London Dinner of any Oxbridge college. It is a great opportunity to meet old friends, make new ones and hear news about recent happenings and developments at the Hall.

100 Wardour Street
Soho
London
W1F 0TN

When: Tuesday 29th January, 7:30pm

(downstairs bar open from 6:15pm)

Dress: Smart / Lounge Suit

Price: £66 / £45 (post-2008 matriculation)

Other: Late bar after the dinner

This year we welcome our new Principal, Professor Katherine Willis, CBE, who is very much looking forward to meeting you at the dinner.

The change of venue to 100 Wardour St last year saw a record 220 attendees (with a waiting list). For 2019 we have managed to keep the cost the same as last year, despite major inflation in food and drink prices generally - we think you will agree that this offers great value in a top class West End venue for a 3 course meal, coffee/tea, ½ bottle wine per head and port.

We saw record numbers of Aularians attending the London Dinner last year from those matriculating in the 1980s, 1990s and this Millennium and would encourage you to reach out to your networks to bring together your friends for a reunion as well as to meet fellow Aularians from across the decades right back to the 1940s. Do book early to secure places along with friends and we will work to ensure that groups and years are seated together wherever requested.

We are also aware that the new location had a number of teething problems which we have worked hard to address with the venue. So, in addition to ensuring seating requests are accommodated, the table layout and more consistent service have been prioritised. Snappy and focused speeches have also been requested. Finally - and courtesy of Bruce Mitchell's generous legacy - port and port glasses will be available for all who want it!

The St Edmund Hall Association is keen to continue to build its engagement with younger Aularians. We are again offering a discount to Aularians who matriculated in 2008 and later, for whom the price will be just £45.
