Events

Wednesday Reading Group (4:30pm)

We'll be reading a book on the environment and scientific interventions: Elizabeth Kolbert's Under a White Sky: The Nature of the Future.

Carols in the Quad, 1 December (timing TBC)

Refreshments, music, and merriment in Front Quad. Not to be missed.

Ghost Stories, 15 December

For those around the Hall after the end of term, the Chaplain is organising a night of ghost stories and other festivities. Write if interested in reading or singing.

The Chapel

Prayer has been offered on the site of St Edmund Hall for over 1000 years, and the Chapel has stood for nearly four centuries as a place for reflection and contemplation. It is open to all members of the Hall.

The Chaplain is available as a pastoral adviser to those of any faith or none; and can also offer information about faith groups at the Hall or around the city. Contact the Chaplain if you would like to read lessons, lead intercessions, or help in other ways with services in Chapel, or if you would like to volunteer somewhere in Oxford.

The Choir

The Choir of St Edmund Hall is led by the Director of Music and the Organ Scholars. It comprises around 24 people, including sixteen choral award holders, and sings at weekly services and on other occasions. Students interested in joining the choir should contact the Director of Music.
