The Chapel

Prayer has been offered on the site of St Edmund Hall for over 1,000 years, and the Chapel has stood for nearly four centuries as a place for reflection and contemplation. It is open to all members of the Hall.

The Chaplain is available as a pastoral adviser to those of any faith or none, and can also offer information about faith groups at the Hall or around the city. Contact the Chaplain if you would like to read lessons, lead intercessions, or help in other ways with services in Chapel, or if you would like to volunteer somewhere in Oxford.

The Choir

The Choir of St Edmund Hall is central to the life of the Hall, and comprises around twenty-four singers, including eight Choral Scholars, Choral Exhibitioners and three Organ Scholars. They sing Evensong on Sunday and on other occasions during and outside term. Students interested in joining the Choir are warmly encouraged to contact the Director of Music.
